

Capt. A. E. Williams

M. V. O., Mus. Doc.

After the Court Dinner, a Reception was held in the large hall, when a presentation was made by the Master to Captain Albert Edward Williams, M. V. O., Mus. Doc. Oxon a Liveryman and Silver Medallist of the Company on behalf of the subscribers to a testimonial to mark his retirement as Senior Director of Music to the Brigade of Guards.

The presentation took the form of a Silver Statuette of a Guardsman and after speeches by the Master and Mr Dan Godfrey (the son of Dr Williams' immediate predecessor as Bandmaster of the Grenadier Guards) Dr Williams made an interesting reply.

The Reception was attended by the Directors of Music of nearly all the Guards Regiments and other distinguished persons interested in Military Music and members of the Livery and a programme of music was performed by the small orchestra band of the Grenadier Guards assisted by students from the Royal Military School of Music, Lieut G. Miller, Dr Williams' successor of the Grenadier Guards acting as Conductor.
