

26th March 1807

upon the most mature deliberation are of Opinion That it will be found... expedient and beneficial for the said Order to remain as it now stands.

The Committee recommend That the next Court Dinner be at Saint Paul's Coffee House at 4 o'clock precisely That Mr. Wadd be desired (in the Absence of the Master and Warden) to be speak the same for not exceeding 14 Persons and that on Account of the State of the Company's Finances No Visitors be invited or admitted there to

30th March 1807

William Carde son of Joseph Carde of Buringham in the County of Somerset Farmer was this day bound Apprent^y to James Remnant Citizen and Musician of London for seven years in consideration of 250[£]

Wm Court
held at Guildhall

Mess^{rs}

Court

The
for who

The
and

The
the
forth
amou
Glerk
and

Vacancy on Court
Trusteeship

The
also by the