

I feel that their right place would be with the Worshipful Company, and if you think they would accept them, I would gladly offer them

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Jan. Malcolm

On the proposition of the Master, seconded by the Senior Warden, a vote of thanks was passed to Sir Jan Malcolm for his kind gift, which the Clerk was directed to carefully preserve with the archives of the Company

Company's Silver Medal
The Royal Naval School of Music
Trinity College of Music

The nomination of Band Master, Percy Francis Grace, R. M. Band, by the Superintendent of the Royal Naval School of Music, and the nomination (triennial) of Mr Harry Blech, by the Director of Studies of Trinity College of Music, were approved.

Victoria & Albert Museum

The Clerk reported that the exhibits lent by the Company to the Victoria & Albert Museum (ante page 30) for the Exhibition of Works of Art belonging to the City Companies, had been duly returned, and a letter was read from the Director and Secretary of the Museum, stating that the exhibition had been one of the most successful ever held. It was resolved to purchase a copy of the illustrated edition of the Catalogue of the Exhibition at the price of 10/6, as offered by the Director.

Beethoven Centenary

P. M. Arthur J. Hill moved that the Beethoven Centenary of next year be observed by the Worshipful Company of Musicians in the following manner:-

- (1) By the formation of a Loan Collection of Mementoes of the great Musician to be held in one of our City Halls, during the period of, say, one month.
- (2) Lectures on Beethoven with musical illustrations from his works during the period of the Exhibition.

The Master

Vote of thanks to retiring Master

Senior Warden

Junior Warden

Treasurer

Clerk

Beadle