

record its appreciation of the fact of so many of the Members of the Company being permitted to take part in the musical portion of the Coronation Ceremony under the able guidance of Past Master Sir Frederick Bridge

Sir Homewood stated that 21 Members and Honorary Freemen of the Company had taken part in the Coronation Service at Westminster Abbey

The resolution was seconded by the Master and supported by Mr. Tischer and carried with acclamation

Sir Homewood Crawford then further stated that Sir Frederick Bridge had given him the baton used by the latter at the Coronation Service and he returned such baton to Sir Frederick Bridge mounted in gold and suitably inscribed which Sir Frederick said he would preserve as an heirloom in his family

The names of the Members and Honorary Freemen taking part in the Coronation service either as Conductor Composers or Singers were ordered to be entered on the Minutes as an interesting record and they are as follows
