 were read and confirmed

Apprentice The Clerk reported the apprenticing of Robert Julian Yeatman of Marlborough College to the Master Arthur F. Hill Esq^r in the Art of Violoncello playing

Society Banquet The Master suggested that having regard to the length of the proceedings at the Society Banquet in recent years it might be advisable to distribute the Companys medals at a special prize giving to be held in the afternoon at which the Companys Scholars could perform and to which the whole of the Society with their Ladies might be invited and he asked the Court to appoint a small Committee to consider the matter. This was seconded by Mr A. H. Littleton
