

Company's Band

R. A. M. the Company's Silver Medallist for 1908
Sir Homewood Crawford moved that it be referred to a Special Committee to consider the desirability of forming a permanent band in connection with the Company for the advancement of British Music and that such Committee do consist of the Master, Warden, Treasurer, Sir Frederick Bridge, Mr. C. J. D. Crews, Sir Homewood Crawford and Messrs A. H. Littleton, A. F. Hill and C. B. Edgar with power to add to their number

This was seconded by the Deputy Master and after discussion the Committee as suggested was appointed accordingly

New Members

The Deputy Master proposed that Sir Vincent Henry Penalver Gullard of 42 Half Moon Street W. be elected a member of the Company

Seconded by Sir Homewood Crawford and carried unanimously

Mr. A. F. Hill proposed that Mr. Edwin Charles Hodgkins of 158^B New Bond Street W. whose Apprenticeship Indentures had just expired be elected a member of the Company

Seconded by Mr. J. C. Colford and carried unanimously

The Deputy Master proposed that Mr. Sydney John Leeb of 4 Lancaster Gate W. be elected a member of the Company

Seconded by Sir Homewood Crawford and carried unanimously

Apprentices Fee

The Clerk enquired whether having regard to the recent increase in the Livery fine it was still intended to admit Apprentices on payment of a fine of £26.3.0 as resolved on the 26th January last (ante page 83) and it was resolved that the fine payable by Apprentices should remain at that figure

On the proposition of Mr. A. F. Hill seconded by the Junior Warden
