

one of our Silver Medallists and another a vocal group by Owen Brannigan, also a Silver Medallist. The remaining group will consist of eight singers performing part songs. Composers will be Elgar, Vaughan Williams, Howells, Rubbra, Jacob, Berkeley and Rawsthorne. Trumpeters from the Royal Artillery will perform fanfares.

In order to save time the customary "Company's Grace" and Loving Cups will be omitted.

A Menu has been selected in consultation with Ring & Brymer Ltd. (Fishmongers Company employ these caterers exclusively). The price will be £2.14.0 per head, including Champagne to be served during the Sweet course. Extras will consist of £12.12.0 for floral decorations and Jamaica Cigars will on this occasion be supplied by the Caterers costing 2/9d. each. Cigarettes will be additional.

It was decided that the Livery should be invited and to bring one lady. Guests of the Court to be at discretion.

Your Committee is not yet able to report the names of the Responder for the Guests and the Proposer of the Company as certain disappointments have been experienced in this connection, but suitable speakers are being actively pursued.

Finally, as a further Coronation year activity plans are being considered for holding a Concert of Chamber Music during the Autumn, at which works by members of the Livery and Medallists of the Company would be performed.

W. GRAHAM WALLACE.