

The Master and Wardens and Members of the Court present afterwards dined at Skimmers Hall with certain ladies and other guests of the Master.

W. W. Cobbett

All Letters should be addressed to
The Librarian.

Guildhall Library,
London, E.C.2.

12 June 1931.

Dear Mr. Hill

We have in our collection of portraits, two fine engravings of Brass Crosby.

Yes, your portrait of James I is now hanging on the wall in the upper gallery at the Guildhall.

With kind regards,

I am

Yours sincerely

Herbert C. Welch,

Arthur F. Hill, Esq., F.R.S.

Welch