Vacancies on Court

H. Saxe Wymndham
Esq.

Sir Jan Malcolm
K.C.M.G.

G. L. Gollard Esq^r

M^r Henry Saxe Wymndham and Sir Jan Malcolm, K.C.M.G. attended, and were sworn in as Assistants, and took their seats.

A letter was read from L. M. G. Gollard, M.A., B.L.S., placing his resignation in the hands of the Court on the ground of absence from London, and ill-health, but having regard to the long connection of his family with the Company, and to the long period during which there had been a "Gollard" on the Court, the Clerk was instructed to ask him to re-consider his proposed resignation.

Sir J. Frederick
Bridge, C.V.O.

A letter was read from Lady Bridge thanking the Court for its vote of sympathy "and for their lovely wreath of flowers", with apologies for delay on account of illness.

Sir Ernest Palmer
Bart.

Sir Alexander
Blackenzie K.C.V.O.

Letters were read from Sir Ernest Palmer, Bart., and Sir Alexander Blackenzie K.C.V.O., expressing their high appreciation of the vote of congratulation
