

d

22 January 1822
 William Wigglesworth, Son of the late Richard Wigglesworth (who was on the 17th January 1776 admitted into the Freedom of this Company by the name of Richard Wigglesworth as appears by the Copy of his Admission &c and now produced) was this day duly admitted into the Freedom of this Company by Patrimony. On the Testimony of Thomas Howe Ball Citizen and Joiner
 of London And sworn &c

Free }
 of Patr. }

Free }
 of Patr. }

Robert
 Grant
 this d servit
 and s

the Father's Copy 17th January 1776
 Son sworn 8th Sept 1792
 Artillery St. Carpenter

d

23 January 1822
 John Morgan Knott, Son of Thomas Knott - Citizen and Musician of London was this day admitted into the Freedom of this Company by Patrimony on the Testimony of the Master of the said Company . . .

Free }
 of Patr. }

Free }
 of Patr. }

James
 Thomas
 London
 this Com
 said la

And duly sworn &c

the Father's Copy 4 Dec 1788
 Son sworn 20 Nov 1791

Birmingham Stationer