202 Upper Thames S. Dry Letter

Tough.

Alexander Tough (who was on the 26 January 1811 bound Apprentice to the late William Price then a Freeman of this Company) applied to be admitted into the Freedom thereof. But as it appears that his Master died during his Apprenticeship & that he has not been regularly turned over to any other Person altho he alleges that he has served seven years The Clerk is desired to make Inquiry as to the Validity of such service and report the result at the next Court.
