

Musicians' company my very sincere thanks for the extremely handsome medal which they have been so good as to present to me, and I shall value it very highly

Yours faithfully

(Signed) C. Arthur Pearson

Guildhall School of Music

The following letter from D^r Cummings the Principal of the Guildhall School of Music was read and was ordered to be entered on the Minutes.

The Guildhall School of Music
Victoria Embankment E.C.

To the Worshipful company of Musicians,
Gentlemen,

I have to report to you that your scholar Herbert P. Thomas, has availed himself to the fullest extent of the advantages afforded by your liberality

He is not only an excellent Violinist and Pianist, but is also a composer of more than ordinary promise, and I have great hope that he will be able to do some work which will bring credit and honour to your Worshipful company and to our school.

I am, Gentlemen, Yours very truly

William H. Cummings

Principal

23. June 1903.

Livery Dinner

Resolved and ordered

That the Court and Livery be invited to dine at The Albion Tavern

Albion Tavern on June

Ground Rent

The Clerk gave at New Malden which adjoined the at 25 years purchase, and should be purchased

Apprentice

A letter was read reference to the apprentice of 17 Portland Place W. of Mr Hornwood that such Apprentice

The Armes
Hornsey

The Clerk reported Armes Hornsey were Mr A. B. Brown the giving notice of dilapidation

The following account

The London Tavern

Messrs Parkins & Co

Metzger & Co Ltd

supplied in

Guildhall School of

Messrs James