

It was proposed by the Master and seconded by the Senior Warden "That the Court having heard with deep regret of the death of the late Mr C. J. D. Crews, desire to place on record their sense of his great services and generous support to the Company and their sympathy with his Family in their bereavement."

Sir Homewood Crawford, the Treasurer and the clerk also expressed their personal appreciation of Mr Crews kindness and liberality. The motion was then carried unanimously.

The clerk further reported that Mr Crews by his Will had bequeathed to the Company an unconditional legacy of £500 free of Legacy Duty.

Trust Funds

The clerk stated that in consequence of the death of Mr Crews the Metropolitan Water B. Stock standing in the names of the Trustees could now be transferred without difficulty into the Company's corporate name and he was instructed to act accordingly.

Thomas Hyde

The clerk reported that he had written to Miss Hyde as instructed but that no notice had been taken of his letter.

Company's Handbooks

The Handbook Committee reported that they had held two meetings and that the Master had undertaken to defray the whole expense of reproducing the Handbook himself and that the form of the new Handbook was being considered in detail and was practically agreed upon. On the proposition of Sir Homewood Crawford seconded by the Treasurer a cordial vote of thanks was unanimously passed to the Master for his liberality.

Benevolent Fund

The Clerk reported the investment of £500 in £593:7:10 London Corporation 3 per cent Stock 1927/1957 and a further £500 in £615:1:3 Coventry 3 per cent Stock 1930/1950.

The Clerk also reported that he had sent out the circular letter to the Members of the Company including the Honorary Freemen as instructed at the last Court but that up to the present he had only received subscriptions on

Royal Military
School of Music

Company's Properties

Music for School Orchestras