

H. M. King
George V.

The Master announced the death on the preceding night of His Majesty King George V. The Court stood in silence as the mark of their deep sorrow and respect.

It was unanimously resolved that the following telegram should be sent to Her Majesty the Queen:-

The Worshipful Company of Musicians with reverent and humble duty desire to send this expression of profound sympathy with Your Majesty and of loyal devotion and sympathy to their new Sovereign King Edward.

Jan Malcolm,

Master of the Company.

The Master intimated that in accordance with tradition the Court would adjourn after its meeting for refreshment but there would be no music or speeches.

Hon Chaplain

The Clerk reported that the Dean of St. Pauls had accepted the Honorary Chaplaincy to the Company. The Clerk was instructed to write desiring him to attend the next Court to be formally welcomed.

Admission Fine

Hall Fund

The Master proposed and Past Master V. Allcard seconded the following resolution

"That in future candidates for admission to the Freedom and Livery of the Company shall pay in addition to the fines and fees at present prescribed upon admission a further fine of £1.1.0 (one guinea) to be allocated to the Company's Hall Fund."
