

and should co-operate with them in endeavouring to obtain payment from Mr. Thorpe, but that if this failed Miss Stewart's fee of Six guineas should be defrayed by the Company

Company's Silver Medal

The following nominations for the Company's Silver Medal were reported by the Clerk:

At the Royal College of Music: Mr. James Whitehead, a Scholar and Violoncello student.

At the Royal Military School of Music: Bandmaster G. E. Dennis A. R. C. M. (previously winner of the Cup) now Bandmaster with the 2nd Battalion Middlesex Regiment

At the Royal Naval School of Music, R. M. B. / 2253 Bandmaster 2nd Class Frederick Charles Harding, now in H. M. S. "Eagle" China Station

Election of Officers

The Officers for the succeeding year were elected as follows:

Master _____ R. Kennerley Rumford, Esq.

Senior Warden _____ The Rt. Hon. Viscount Astor

Junior Warden _____ The Rev. Prebendary G. H. Perry M. A., F. D.

Treasurer _____ A. F. Hill, Esq. F. S. A., F. R. C. M., Past Master

Clerk _____ H. A. F. Crowdon, Esq. M. A.

Beadle _____ Mr. Ernest Hills

Christmas Card

The Clerk suggested that a Christmas Card should be printed for the use of Members of the Livery. He said it was necessary that 250 should be ordered if the cards were to sell at not more than 1/6^d. He had already had orders for 235 from Liverymen.

Portraits of Past Masters