

to Queen Alexandra but it was decided that there were no funds available for the purpose.

July 1st Dinner Past. Master Hoare moved that the Dinner in July should be held at 8 p.m. and not at 7 and that Ladies should be invited as on the same occasion last year.

A letter was recd from Sir Homewood Crawford (who was unable to be present through indisposition) suggesting that the Dinner should be held at 7.30 and this hour was agreed to and the Clerk was instructed to notify that the reception would be at 7.15.

It was decided that the Weber Centenary should be celebrated by a programme of the Composer's Music on that occasion and that the Library should be invited to take tickets for the Dinner and that Ladies should be invited as guests.

10 Hornsey Park Road.

Correspondence that had passed between Miss Winifred G. Waghorn a recent assignee of the Lease of 10 Hornsey Park Road and the Clerk was recd with reference to an encroachment by the owner of the adjoining house (7. & 8) many years ago to make a side entrance to the latter house.

The Clerk explained that he had had an interview with Miss Waghorn's Father who stated that his daughter did not propose to take any action in the matter so long as the Company raised no objection and it was resolved that no action should be taken.
