

The recipient of the medal may be of either sex, and is to be selected by the Director for the time being of the Royal College of Music at his sole discretion and is to be presented to such professional or amateur musician as he may consider has given distinguished services to the art of Chamber Music.

Mr. Lobbell will, in addition, present the Company with £50 to form a fund, the interest of which, will pay for striking the medal and entertaining the recipient at dinner each year.

Mr. Lobbell was again thanked for his liberality.

Distinguished Guests.

It was decided to invite Dr. Vaughan Williams as the distinguished professional musician to the Livery Banquet in October and failing him Dr. Charles Wood and to invite Lord Howe as the distinguished amateur musician and failing him Sir Robert Walley Cohen.

Music at Livery
Dinner

It was decided to leave the programmes of music to be performed at the Livery Dinner in the hands of the Royal College of Music to whom the Company's silver medal went this year.

Court and Livery
Dinner.

Estimates obtained by the Clerk from Messrs. King & Brymer, J. Lyons & Co. Ltd., and the Mayfair Catering Co., Ltd., were considered, and it was decided to continue the employment of Messrs. King & Brymer whose estimate was the lowest.

Allowance and Wardens Fines

In pursuance of notice, P. M. de La Fontaine raised the question as to the amount of the allowance and Wardens fines payable on election and suggested that they ought to be doubled but after discussion the matter was not pressed.

44, Abingdon Rd.
Surbiton.

The Clerk reported that the ground rent of £5 per annum secured on 44 Abingdon Road Surbiton had been sold for £130, and all costs and it was left to the Treasurer to invest the money.

Benevolent Fund
Prendergast Trust
Leo Stern Trust

The following investments were reported:

Benevolent Fund £200 invested in £286.5.2 Coventry Corporation 3 per cent