

1811

the 9th Oct<sup>r</sup> 1811

Free
& Serv<sup>t</sup>

Frederic Augustus Wainman, the late Apprentice of John Jacob Citizen and Musician of London, by Indentures for seven years from the 22<sup>d</sup> day of March 1804 was this day admitted into the Freedom of this Company by Servitude on the Testimony of his said late Master
And duly sworn &c

Elected

+ L<sup>d</sup> 2<sup>d</sup> 0<sup>d</sup>

N<sup>o</sup> 6 Windsor St. Bishopsgate L<sup>d</sup> Fishmonger

Free
& Serv<sup>t</sup>

Charles Scott Bartlett the late Apprentice of William Duttaby Citizen and Musician of London for seven years from December 1802 having appeared at this Court with his said Master and requested to be admitted into the Freedom of this Company by Servitude It was so Ordered And he was thereupon admitted accordingly And duly sworn &c

Elected

+ L<sup>d</sup> 2<sup>d</sup> 0<sup>d</sup>

N<sup>o</sup> 5 Creed Lane Bookbinder.

bring down.

A Motion was then made and seconded That Mr. Thomas Wood, the late Master's Account be audited And that the Treasurer do afterwards pay the Balance of such Audit to the present Master Mr. John Safford, whose Receipt shall be a Voucher for the same - Which on the Question being put was carried in the Affirmative.

ere then