

BANNER

PRESENTED TO THE MUSICIANS' COMPANY

BY MR. W. H. ASH, J.P.,

Past President of the Livery Club, 1908-9.

This banner, a description of which appeared in "The Queen" of July 13, 1895, is an admirable piece of workmanship, and it was awarded a medal and diploma at the Chicago Exhibition. It was designed by Mr. Oswald Fleuss, who also painted the lovely face and hands of the saint. The embroidery was carried out by Miss Digby, a clever colourist, who has secured a rich and glowing effect pleasantly subdued by softer tones.
