

passed at the last Court

Companys Silver Medal.
Royal College of Music.
Royal Military
School of Music.
Royal Naval School
of Music

The Clerk reported that Mr. Verman Greenwood, Pianist, had been selected by the Director of the Royal College of Music, and Band Sergeant Henry Hlay Jarmen, The Kings Regiment (Liverpool) by the Commandant of the Royal Military School of Music, as the Companys Silver Medalists for the year, but that the Medalist of the Royal Naval School of Music would not be selected until November.

Gobbell Medal for Chamber Music.

It was reported that Mr. Thomas Frederick Dunhill had been selected by the Director of the Royal College of Music as the recipient of the Gobbell Medal for this year.

J. D. Mackinnon
Esq.

On the proposition of the Master, seconded by the Senior Warden, Mr. Alpin Duncan Mackinnon of Little Heath, Limpsfield, Surrey, Adjuster of Averages, was unanimously elected a Member of the Company.

Alfred Robert
Stock Esq. F.R.C.O.

Correspondence that had passed between the Clerk and Mr. Alfred Robert Stock, F.R.C.O., of 8 Grenada Road, Hurlingham, S.W. as to his wish to join the Company, was read, but as he was not personally known to any Member of the Court, the Clerk was instructed to enquire of the College of Organists, and to ask Mr. Stock to get some other Members of the Company beside Mr. H. Wharton-Wells to support him.

Bye-Laws
Attendance of Assistants.

The Master drew attention to the regulations for the attendance of Assistants at the various Courts, and gave notice of his intention to move an amendment of Bye-Law II by reducing the period at the expiration of which Assistants neglecting to attend a Court were to be considered as having resigned, from two years to one year, in the absence of any explanation acceptable to the Court.

The Holtman
Memorial Gift

The Treasurer reported that Mrs. Holtman, the Widow of Mr. William

St. Cecilia Celebration.

St. Laurence Fair
Organ Fund