Weber
Centenary
The dinner following the Court was attended by H. R. H. The Duke of Connaught K.G. and many other distinguished guests and after the dinner a programme of Carl N. von Weber's music in commemoration of the Centenary of his death in London arranged by the Master was performed. The Master in proposing "The Memory of Weber" mentioned the interesting fact that the last composition Weber ever penned was written for his friend Mr. William Ward who was M.P. for the City of London and Governor of the Bank of England and Vice-Master of the Musicians Company in 1830-1 and 1839-40
