

Offer of £25 The clerk reported the receipt from Mr. G. J. D. Crews of the £25 he had offered to a young English composer

a composition

Gobbell Prize

Competition

A letter was read from Captain Alex. S. Beaumont of South Norwood Park S.E. who had borne the expense of a concert at Bechstein Hall where the Phantasies had been performed urging the Company to foster the love for this class of music

A letter was also read from Novello & Co Limited stating that the score of Mr. Harleston's Phantasy was now ready

A letter was also read from Mr. W. W. Goblett saying he would like to have authority to distribute 25 copies of each of the Phantasies to Quartet Organisations and others and the necessary leave was granted

Mr. A. F. Hill reported that the arrangement come to by Mr. Waldo Warner with Metzler & Co Limited for the publication of his Phantasy had fallen through and stated that it was proposed to have this Phantasy published at the expense of the Livery Club

British

Orchestras

In pursuance of Notice, Sir Homewood Crawford moved "That it is desirable to convene at a suitable date a conference to consider the status of British Orchestras with a view to securing their due recognition"

He suggested that such a conference might be held in Stationers Hall

This was seconded by Mr. Southgate and carried unanimously and the Master the new Master and Wardens Sir Frederick Bridge and Mr. A. F. Hill were appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements with power to add to their number

Publication of Lectures delivered at the Music Loan
Exhibition

Sir Homewood Crawford reported the gracious acceptance of Presentation Copies of these Lectures by Their Majesties The King and Queen Alexandra