

At a Special Court of Assistants at the Guildhall on Thursday the 26th day of November 1857.

Present

Mr Jones
Master

Members called. The Master put

Mr Wood
Warden

said to those present

Mr Fellowes
Warden

The Minutes of the last Court

Mr Colford

were read and confirmed and the

Mr Bridge

Accounts referred to reported and approved

Mr Clapham

The Master stated that the Court

Mr Evans

had been specially convened in consequence of the death of Mr Husley the late Clerk

Mr Fellowes

Mr Joseph Shellock

Resolved Unanimously

Mr Henry

That the office of Clerk to the Clerk.

Company be and the same is hereby declared vacant

Resolved Unanimously

That the appointment to the Office of Clerk take place at the next

Quarterly Court

Resolved Unanimously

That this Court cannot but record their feelings of regret at the death of their late Clerk Mr James Husley - they testify their respect for his memory and their sincere appreciation of his zealous endeavours faithfully to discharge all the duties of his responsible office - and ~~and~~ respectfully offer to his Widow and Family their united sentiments of sympathy and condolence at the bereavement they have sustained