

All Letters
should be addressed to
The Librarian.

Guildhall Library,
London, E.C.2.

12 June 1931.

Dear Mr. Hill

We have in our collection of portraits, two line engravings of Brass Crosby.

Yes, your portrait of James I is now hanging on the wall in the upper gallery at the Guildhall.
With kind regards,

I am

Yours sincerely

Herbert C. Welch.

Arthur F. Hill, Esq., F.S.A.

Welch