St. Paul's
Reparation
Fund

The Treasurer stated that two members of the Court, who wished to be anonymous, but whose names he could not help announcing, viz, P. M. Wyett, and P. M. Hill, had given two handsome donations of £100 and £20, respectively, to St. Paul's Reparation Fund, to be presented in the name of the Company, and he said he proposed to keep the list open for a short time. After discussion, it was decided, on the proposition of P. M. Sir Frederick Bridge, seconded by the Senior Warden, that any sums received should be made up to £150, which should be sent to the Treasurer of the Fund as a donation from the Company.
