

At a Committee of the Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Musicians held at the Queen's Arms Tavern in Saint Paul's Church Yard on Thursday the 16th day of September 1773.

Present

M^r Stagg - Warden
M^r Walker
M^r Spencer
M^r Keating

The Committee proceeded to compare the Articles charged in the Cash Book with the Cheque, cast up the Account and paid M^r Bates's Bill for the Annual Feast £63. 1. 6

M^r Keating settled with the Clerk and Beadle for £8. 5. received for Quarterage and paid them the Allowance for collecting the same £1. 13.

Paid the Beadle £3. 0. 6 in full of Fees to this Time

Ordered that 100 Pair of Indentures of Apprenticeship be printed with the Company's Arms in Front

Order'd that an Advertisement to assemble the Livery of this Company at Guildhall on Michaelmas Day for the Election of Mayor be inserted in the Daily Advertiser.

Order'd that the next Quarter Court be held at the Queen's Arms Tavern in Saint Paul's Church Yard on Thursday the 14th day of October 1773.

James
Gent settled to sworn was

s. by 2. 11. 0
and 5. 7. 6
7. 18. 6