

Orlando Gibbons
Bust.

Correspondence that had passed between Mr. E. E. Shorter and the Clerk with reference to the copper plate and some prints of the Bust of Orlando Gibbons which had been presented to Westminster Abbey by the late Past Master Grew and which plate and prints were in the possession of Mrs. V. Shorter a sister of the late Past Master Dr. J. L. Southgate, was read.

The Clerk stated that from enquiries he had made he thought the plate was of small value but it was decided that although Mrs. Shorter might be allowed to retain and sell any prints in her possession she should be asked to return the plate itself to the Company.

Association of Clerks of City Companies.

The Clerk reported that he had been invited to join an Association of Clerks to City Companies without Halls with special regard to the requirements of the Educational Committee of the London County Council.

It was unanimously decided that it would be advisable for the Clerk to join the Association and that the Company should pay such fees (if any) as were necessary.

Distinguished Guests

It was resolved to invite Mr. Ben Davies as the distinguished professional musician to the Livery Banquet in October and failing him Sir Dan. Godfrey; and to invite Mr. Philip L. Agnew Chairman of the Committee of Management of the Royal Academy of Music as the distinguished amateur musician.

The Company's Silver Medal.
Royal Naval
School of Music

A letter was read from the Superintendent of the Royal Naval School of Music stating that the Company's silver medalist would be selected after examination in September next and the Clerk was instructed to accept the name of the Student when received.

Royal Military
School of Music

The recommendation of Colonel J. G. Somerville C. B. Esq. the

Guildhall School of Music

Royal College of Organists

Arthur Skinner
Esq.

Royal Academy of Music

Carnegie
Scholarship