

21 October 1815

George Hunt Son of Thomas Hunt Citizen and Musician of London was this day duly admitted into the Freedom of this Company

Free

by Patrimony - And sworn &c

£ 2.8.0

10. Fish Hill Maberdasher

Widow's

8 Nov 1782

Morn

1790.

16th Nov: 1815

Stephen Christian Rehden Son of John Rehden late of Dorset Street, Fleet Street London Taylor deceased was

Apprentice

this day bound Apprentice to John Christopher Rehden

Citizen and Musician of London for seven years by Indenture in consideration of true and faithful Service &c

In presence of W. G. Ford

v.c
17/4

17th Nov: 1815

Daniel Button Son of Daniel Button of Canningham in the County of Suffolk, Farmer deceased and late an

Free

Apprentice of Thomas Whittel late Citizen and Musician of London deceased by Indentures of the 1st April 1800 and who was afterwards viz on 14th July 1804 duly turned over to John Frouch late Citizen & Needle maker of London (also deceased) as appears by a Certificate indorsed on the said Indenture was this day admitted into the Freedom of this Company by Servitude On the Testimony of William Smith Citizen & Barber of London And duly sworn &c

Free

43. Fore St. Silversmith

£ 2.8.0

Wardens

were

Company which was