

Stanley J. Rubinstein Esq

A letter was read from Mr. Stanley J. Rubinstein, a Lawyerman of the Company, as to the Company's activities, and it was decided that Mr. Rubinstein should be asked to make suggestions as to what the Company could do more, having regard to its want of funds, and the matter was left in the hands of the Master, Treasurer, and Clerk, to communicate with Mr. Rubinstein on the subject.

Butchers' Company

A letter was read from the Clerk of the Butchers' Company as to preventing the display and use of the arms of a City Company by unauthorised persons, and it was decided that the Company could not usefully interfere and that such letter should lie on the table.

Victoria & Albert Museum

A letter was read from the Director and Secretary of the Victoria and Albert Museum, South Kensington, enquiring if the Company would be willing to lend any of its plate and other works of art at an exhibition which it was proposed to hold in July next for about 2 months at the Victoria and Albert Museum, and it was decided that the Director of the Museum should be invited to meet the Master and Clerk at Stationers Hall to inspect the Company's plate, so that the Director might decide whether he thought any of it was suitable for exhibition, having regard to its modernity.

South East London Musical Festival

A letter was read from the Hon. Sec. of the South East London Musical Festival, asking for assistance, and it was decided that no funds were available for the purpose.

Miss Hurlstone

A letter was read from Miss K. Hurlstone, asking if the Company would relinquish their rights in the Royalties of the String & Phantasia Quartette, published by Novello & Co. Ltd, for which her late brother Mr. W. H. Hurlstone, had won a prize, presented by Mr. W. H. Cobbell in 1905 and it was decided to comply with her request.
