

91. 131 Independent Commando Squadron RE (V)

131 Commando Squadron lives up to its motto 'Ubique', meaning 'Everywhere', as it is one of the most widely travelled of all Territorial Army units. To join, soldiers must pass the gruelling Commando Course to earn their Green Berets. They then go on to become Royal Engineers tradesmen, in roles varying from diver to demolition expert.

92. St John Ambulance Talbot Corps of Drums

The Talbot Corps of Drums was formed in 1989 and is based in Bournemouth and Poole, Dorset. It is a youth marching band and performs in a traditional style, undertaking a wide range of performances across the South of England and the Midlands. Bandmaster Andrew Kinch and the band are delighted to be performing at the Lord Mayor's Show again this year. www.talbotcod.org.uk

93. St John Ambulance – London (Prince of Wales's) District

St John Ambulance's vision is everyone who needs it should receive first aid from those around them. No one should suffer for the lack of trained first aiders. At today's Show, follow the organisation from 1887-2012, celebrating 125 years of first-aid delivery in the community.

94. Coming Home

Coming Home is the fundraising campaign for the charity Haig Housing Trust, which provides housing help for our severely wounded military heroes. It is vitally important that they have a suitable, adapted home from which they can rebuild their lives. Join us in celebrating Coming Home's first anniversary at The Lord Mayor's Show with a number of the organisation's beneficiaries and supporters. www.cominghome.org.uk

95. Blagden Specialty Chemicals

Blagden, a former City-based firm with offices in Plantation House, Mincing Lane, is thriving today as a leading supplier of a comprehensive range of specialty ingredients and additives used in well-known brands. Serving UK market sectors, from pharmaceuticals, paints, coatings and cosmetics to plastics, food, nutrition and technical applications, Blagden represents world-class manufacturers from across the globe. www.blagden.com

96. Worshipful Company of Paviers

Originating in the 14th century, the Paviers Company encompasses all aspects of the highways industry from research to design and construction. A traditional steamroller leads the Company today, towing a float that celebrates the industry's work. Generous sponsors this year include Sir Robert McAlpine, Saint-Gobain, FM Conway, VINCI Construction, BAM Construct UK, General Demolition and Miller Construction.

97. The Automobile Association

AA1, the AA's 1904 Renault, leads today's AA procession featuring historical and modern patrol vehicles from 1950's BSA motorbike sidecars to modern Honda Pan-European motorbikes used in London today. In total, the AA has a collection of 40 historical vehicles that appear at events across the country.

98. Sea Cadets Corps Band

The Sea Cadets Band comprises cadets from units as far afield as Tunbridge Wells, Herne Bay and Whitstable, and is once again the Sea Cadet Corps National Champion this year. Lt (SCC) Steve Louth RNR is the Director of Music responsible for training the band.

99. Sea Cadet Corps

The Sea Cadets, Britain's largest maritime youth charity, offers 15,000 young people aged between 10 and 18 the chance to challenge themselves through adventure activity on a nautical theme. Nearly 400 units across the UK offer a range of waterborne and other adventurous activities to inspire young people to make the leap into adulthood with confidence and knowledge. www.sea-cadets.org

100. Maritime London

Maritime London represents the many maritime-related businesses in the City and across the UK. London is the world's leading centre for maritime services and global ship-owners come here to do business. Areas of expertise found here include shipbroking, insurance, finance, classification, legal and education. The sector provides employment for 12,000 people and in 2011 contributed £2.2bn in overseas earnings to the UK economy. www.maritimelondon.com

101. Welcome To Yorkshire

The official destination management organisation for Yorkshire celebrates its bid to bring the Grand Départ of the Tour de France to the county, by showcasing for the first time the vehicles that will appear in the world-famous