

"Limited, with a direction to pay the sum of £20 yearly to
"the National Brass Band Club and League

"Any balance of income remaining after such payments
"to be used at the sole and unfettered discretion of the Court
"for any purpose they may deem suitable

"I shall be glad to know if my proposal is acceptable
"to the Court

"Yours faithfully,

"J. Henry Hes.

On the proposition of the Treasurer the Master's proposal was unanimously agreed to

Proposed by Sir Hugh Allen - seconded by T.M. Sir Jan Malcolm that the grateful appreciation of the Court of the Master's munificent gift be recorded. This was carried with acclamation.

C. R. Draper

An application from M^r C R Draper for assistance in learning to play the pianoforte was considered but not acceded to, the Court taking into consideration that the applicant was unknown to any member of the Court, and moreover was already in employment in industry for which he appeared to be qualified.
