

that Mr Frank Bridge and Mr Fushkin had already won Prizes in the Company's competitions. He also said he had felt justified in assuring Mr Cobbett that the Company would accept the scheme and his action was approved and on the proposition of the Master, seconded by Sir Frederick Bridge a cordial vote of thanks was passed to Mr Cobbett for his further liberality and the Clerk was instructed to express to him the Court's great appreciation of his scheme of giving young composers commissions.

The Company's
Badge } The Clerk reported the delivery of specimens of the Company's Badges to the British Museum and the Guildhall Library and the following letters of thanks for the same were read and ordered to be entered on the Minutes.

British Museum

Sir,

17 March 1910

I am directed by the Trustees of the British Museum to acknowledge the receipt of the objects mentioned on the other side which the Worshipful Company of Musicians has been so good as to present to them and I am to request that you will convey to the Master and Livery of the Company the expression of the best thanks of the Trustees of the British Museum for this donation.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant

J. G. Kenyon

Director and Principal Librarian

The Clerk to the Worshipful Company of Musicians

Specimens in gold and silver of the Court and Livery Badges of the Musicians Company

London

Pageant

International

Conference on

Music