

The following Report from the Examiners for the Guls Scholarship was read

To the Court of the Worshipful Company of Musicians

We have to report that on Feby. 18th according to instructions we conducted an Examination to select a candidate for the Company's Palmer Scholarship now vacant This took place in the room of the Principal at the Guildhall School of Music

Five candidates presented themselves for examination. For the most part they proved to be below the standard which we think should be maintained for this Scholarship. One however Miss Edith Maud Harby of 9 Prospero Road Upper Holloway aged 16 was particularly good. She presented herself first for Pianoforte and secondly for Singing Miss Harby gained full marks in nearly all the subjects in which she was tested and we recommend her for the scholarship
