

8th July 1807

Upon a Motion being made and duly seconded it was Resolved That the fine in future for the translating of any Member of this Company be Fifteen Guineas

Richard Phillips Esq^r of Bridge Street (One of the Sheriffs Elect for the year ensuing) attended this Court and expressed his wish to be translated with their leave to the Worshipful Company of Stationers which was accordingly granted on payment of £5-15-0 When

The following Six Gentlemen were appointed to attend the Court of Aldermen to surrender the said Richard Phillips, Esq^r to the said Company of Stationers on Notice being sent them viz^t

Mess^{rs} Nutter, Wadd, Harrap, Williams Oxford and Cowell

Charles Oxford ^{son of} the late Apprentice of John Oxford Citizen and Musician of London was this-day admitted to the Freedom of this Company by Servitude on the Testimony of his said Master. And sworn

£2-8-0

Livery fine The said Charles Oxford afterwards paid his Livery and Steward's Fine of 2/6 to the Poor

£. 5. 0
15th 17th 6

Every fine of the Brook

And
the
the

Or at day for at 4

Will
of
was the Citizen
Seven