My dear Mr. Crowson.

Many thanks for yesterday's letter.
I need hardly tell you how touched I am by the generosity of the Court: for their meeting my expenses in the matter of the Income Tax appeal: and much more still, for the great honour of my proposed admission to the Freedom and Livery of the Company and to be a Freeman of the City of London. For the honour in itself, and for the chance of continual relationship with the Worshipful Company — and for the generous offer to defray my admission expenses, I am most grateful.

Will you very kindly make known to the Court my deep appreciation?

Your own personal pleasure in all this adds greatly to my own. Thank you so much.

I am greatly pleased to know of
