

Beagle

On the proposition of J. M. Chamier seconded by the Master Mr. Ernest Hills was unanimously re-elected Beagle for the ensuing year.

The Clerk stated that the Beagle had now completed 25 years service and on the proposition of the Master seconded by the new Treasurer, it was unanimously resolved to present him with a gratuity of 25 guineas as a mark of appreciation of his long and faithful services.

Mr. Ernest Hills was so informed and returned thanks.

Vacancy on Board

A letter was read from Sir William John Lancaster, J. P. tendering his resignation as an Assistant on the ground of ill-health and as the Clerk stated that he had seen Sir William who said he would never be able to attend an evening function again, the resignation was accepted with the deepest regret.

Carnegie
Scholarship

At the request of Sir Landon Ronald, the Principal of the Guildhall School of Music, the Carnegie Scholarship held by Miss Kathleen L. J. Mapple, was extended for another year.

Royal
Philharmonic
Society

A letter was read from Mr. J. Newburn Leven, a Liveryman of the Company and the Hon. Sec. of the Royal Philharmonic Society asking for financial help, but it was resolved, with regret, that the Company had no available funds.

Leo Stern
Memorial
Gift

A letter was read from Sir Hugh Allen the Director of the Royal College of Music recommending Miss Helen Just as the recipient of the Leo Stern Memorial Gift for 1923, and the recommendation was approved.

Grant of Diplomas to Schools.

The Master elect shortly outlined a scheme he said he had much at heart for the granting of diplomas of the Company by public presentations to Teachers after examinations of their Schools with a view to popularizing the love of music in Schools and stated that he proposed to arrange for professional Musicians of eminence to express their views upon the subject at the