Clerk to the Musicians Company

London

Pageant

The Master reported an interview he had had with Mr W. H. Bell who was organising the London Pageant about to be held and stated that he had given Mr Bell sketches for property instruments and also information which he hoped would be useful

International

Conference on

Music

The Senior Warden called attention to the Congress on International Music proposed to be held in London in May 1911 and suggested that the Company ought to take some part in the Congress. Sir Frederick Budge suggested that the Company should join the guarantee fund and on the proposition of Sir Thomwood Crawford, seconded by the Treasurer it was unanimously resolved that the Company should join the Guarantee Fund to the extent of One hundred guineas (it being
