

St Paul's Cathedral Restoration Fund

recipient of the Leo Stern Memorial Gift for 1921.

The Master suggested that the Company ought to contribute to the St Paul's Cathedral Restoration Fund as liberally as possible having regard to its close association with the Cathedral and after discussion it was resolved to make a donation of 25 guineas and to invite the members of the Company, including the Hon. Freeman to associate themselves with the donation so as to make the same worthy of the Company, and the Clerk was instructed to send out the necessary circular letter. Several members of the Court present and the Clerk expressed their willingness to subscribe £5.5.0 a piece towards the Fund.
