26th April 1921

Mr. Geoffrey Trevor Burnett Brown, of Greenhurst Beaconsfield was this day admitted to the Livery (following Apprenticeship) by the Master, having previously paid the fees.

Livery

The Dinner following the Court was attended by members of the Livery and many distinguished guests, including His Excellency the Spanish Ambassador, who gave a most interesting address on Spanish music, which was illustrated by short musical sketches of the different national airs, songs and dances of Spain, by Señor Carlos Sobrino, assisted by Señor Fontecha (Tenor) and Señor Angel Grande (Violinist).
