

to give and endow an annual Medal to be presented by the Company, in connection with Chamber Music.

P. M. Sir Frederick Bridge suggested the advisability of giving a Prize instead of a Medal, which he thought was becoming too common, and, after discussion, the matter was referred to Mr. Gobbett, the Senior Warden (Mr. E. B. Hoare) and P. M. A. J. Hill, to prepare a scheme, and submit it to the next Court for consideration. On the proposition of the Master, seconded by Mr. Ash, Mr. Gobbett was thanked for his liberality.

E. P. Smith Esq.

On the proposition of the Master (on behalf of P. M. Major A. G. Chamier) seconded by P. M. Sir Frederick Bridge, Mr. Eric Pondrell Smith, of Moorgate Hall, E. C. was elected a Member of the Company. The Clerk produced the City Freedom Certificates of Mr. E. P. Smith's Great Grandfather Mr. William James Smith, dated the 27th October 1831, and of his Great Great Grandfather, Mr. William James Smith, dated the 23rd July 1783, both of whom had been Members of the Company, and the Certificates were inspected with much interest.

Lt. Col. G. E. N. Booker, G. B. E.

On the proposition of the Master, seconded by Sir James Bayton, Lt. Col. George Edward Vassay Booker, G. B. E. of 38 Lounds Square, S. W. was elected a Member of the Company.

Lloyds Chori

The Master reported that, accompanied by the Wardens, the Clerk and the Beadle, he had attended "in state" at the Carol Singing by Lloyds Chori at the Royal Exchange on the 19th December last, which had proved an unqualified success. The Master stated that Lloyds Chori proposed to give a concert at the Royal Exchange twice a year to popularize music in the City, and that he would like to subscribe £20 to be passed on in the Company's name to the Chori, towards the expense of such concerts, on

Miss Adeline S. Bridge

National Library for the Blind

Mme Albani

11 The Avenue Hornsey