

of band pieces. This means, therefore, that there must be a separate drum & fife band, as is always the case; and we have, alas! neither funds or men for this purpose.

We are, none the less, extremely gratified for the very handsome present of the Court, and for their kindly intentions.

Yours v. truly

Robert White

L<sup>t</sup> Col.

and on the proposition of Past Master F. Harwood Lescher seconded by Past Master Sir Frederick Bridge it was resolved that Colonel White be invited to return the Instruments for presentation elsewhere if no use could be made of them by Col. White's battalion.

Vacancy on Court
On the proposition of Past Master Sir Homewood Crawford seconded by Past Master C. D. Hoblyn, Sir William John Lancaster J. P. was unanimously elected a Member of the Court

Cobbett Phantasies
Past Master W<sup>m</sup> J. L. Southgate reported that he had given an order to reprint 100 copies of M<sup>r</sup> Frank Bridge's Phantasy Quartet and his action was approved and confirmed

Carnegie Scholarship.
Miss Phyllis Plank
A correspondence with M<sup>r</sup> Landon Donald and others as to the resignation of one of the Company's Carnegie Scholarships by Miss Phyllis Plank was read and it was resolved that such resignation having been tendered and become effective, steps be taken in due course to supply a new Scholar for the Guildhall School of Music.

Ernest Palmer Scholarships
On the proposition of Past Master Sir Homewood Crawford seconded by Past Master W<sup>m</sup> J. L. Southgate it was unanimously resolved to extend the Palmer Scholarship held by Leo F. P. Turpin for another year from October 1915.