

A letter from Mr Dupen praying for relief was read and

The Master Moved that £3.3.0 should be given to him as a Donation

Seconded by Mr Brews and carried unanimously.

A letter from Mr A. H. Hill was read and
It was resolved

That Mr Hill be informed that Sir George Clement Martin had already been elected to the Freedom and Livery of the Worshipful Company of Musicians and Sir Walter Parratt and Sir Hubert Parry had been presented with the Silver Medal and the Court did not see its way to do anything further at present.

The Petition of Mr E. A. Elderswhite (a Freeman of the Worshipful Company of Musicians) praying to be transferred to the Worshipful Company of Ironmongers was read.

Resolved

That his Petition be granted and that the following six Members of the Court of the
