

A Letter from Solomon Wadd Esq. was presented to this Court and read as follows vizth.

To the Master Wardens and Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Musicians

Gentlemen

It is with true respect, I acknowledge your politeness, in replacing me on your Court, which I had forfeited by not regularly attending for more than two years and that from severe Illness.

I always had the sincerest regard for the prosperity of the Company and no one enjoyed the Society of every individual Member of it, more than

Your obliged & obedient Humble Servant

Basinghall St
January 3^d 1821

Wadd.

Whereupon it was Ordered That the same be Entered in the Proceedings of this Court
