

Sir John Stainer

The Clerk reported that the Senior Warden and himself (the Master and the Junior Warden both being out of Town at the time) had as representatives of the company attended the service at St Pauls Cathedral on the 16th December 1903 when a mural tablet in memory of the late Sir John Stainer (who was the Master of the company at the date of his death) was unveiled by Canon Scott Holland

Member of Court

The Clerk was instructed to write to M<sup>rs</sup> Edward Beddome Forbes enquiring if he would serve the office of Assistant if elected and if he declined the Clerk was then to write to the Rev<sup>d</sup> Robert Henry Hadden M.A. to the like effect and it was arranged that the gentleman willing to serve should be elected an Assistant at the next Court and should be invited to attend to take up his Admission on that day.

Declaration Book

Sir Homewood Crawford presented a handsome Declaration Book for use on the admission of the Master Wardens and Assistants and on the proposition of the Master seconded by the Senior Warden a hearty vote of thanks was passed to Sir Homewood Crawford for his liberal gift.

Treasurer

A letter was read from M<sup>rs</sup> W. S. Colbard stating that her Husband on account of ill health felt bound to resign his post of Treasurer and as the Clerk stated that M<sup>rs</sup> W. S. Colbard's decision was final his resignation was on the proposition of M<sup>rs</sup> C. D. Hoblyn seconded by M<sup>rs</sup> F. Harwood accepted with great regret and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to him for his long and useful services as Treasurer.

The Clerk was directed to convey the same to M<sup>rs</sup> W. S. Colbard
