

I understand that the Worshipful Master Sir George Wyatt Tuscott Lord Mayor of London would be free on the afternoon of Thursday 8th July and suggest that date hoping that it will meet the convenience of the Company

The invitation is extended of course to the wives and daughters of all members and refreshments will be provided

On hearing from you the views of the Court I will take steps to issue the invitations to every member if you will kindly let me have a complete list with addresses

I am dear Sir

Yours very truly

Alfred G. Balfour

Lieut Colonel

Commandant

Royal Military School of Music and on the proposition of the Master seconded by the Deputy Master the invitation was accepted with thanks

Mr W. H. Ash J.P. The following letter was read from Mr W. H. Ash J.P. a Banner of St Cecilia Liveryman of the Company

Broad Street

Golden Square W.

Nov. 28, 1908

My dear Fenwick

I beg to offer the Banner of St Cecilia which was used on Monday last to the Worshipful Company of Musicians with my grateful thanks for the kindness the Court & Livery have shown me from the day of my election

The Clerk

Yours truly
William H. Ash

Carnegie
Scholarship

Ernest Palmer
Scholarship