

The Master said that he had sent personal letters of thanks to the Lord Mayor and to the Artistes who had given their services and on the proposition of the Senior Warden seconded by M^r Hugh Wyatt an unanimous and cordial vote of thanks was passed to the Master and Past Master Sir Homewood Crawford for the great services rendered by them in the matter

The Company's
Silver Medal
Lieut. A. E. Williams
M. V. O. Mus. Doc.
Miss Phyllis Lett

The Senior Warden on behalf of Past Master Sir Homewood Crawford, who was unfortunately absent through illness, moved that the Silver Medal of the Company be presented to Lieutenant Albert Edward Williams M. V. O. Mus. Doc. Oxon, Band Master of the Grenadier Guards a Liveryman of the Company, and to Miss Phyllis Lett for services rendered to the Company and stated that both Lieutenant Williams and Miss Lett had been lately at the Front helping to entertain the Troops. The Resolution was seconded by Past Master Alderman Sir Edward C. Cooper and supported by Past Master W^m Southgate. The Master suggested the elimination of the words "for services rendered to the Company" and the insertion of "for services to Music" in lieu thereof. This was supported by Sir Ernest Clarke and the resolution so amended was carried nem. con.

Cobbett
Phantasies

A letter was read from M^r W. W. Cobbett a Liveryman of the Company with reference to further commissions he proposed to give for Folk Song Phantasies and it was resolved that he might use the name of the Company in connection with the publication of such Phantasies, as under its aegis.

Alien Liverymen

The Master mentioned the case of two Naturalised Liverymen of alien enemy birth whose names had recently come before the Public in connection with the German Athenaeum and suggested a reference to a Committee to consist of the Master, Wardens and Sir Homewood Crawford to consider the whole question of Liverymen of alien birth but after a short discussion it was decided to allow the matter to stand over to await developments in connection with the Liverymen in question.
