Order of 13th Oct<sup>r</sup> 1802 rescinded }
It appearing by an Order of Court made the 13th Day of October 1802, that a new Account should be opened in the Old South Sea Annuities and that William Chivers, Solomon Wadd and John Rutter Esq<sup>r</sup> should be the Trustees; but Mr. John Hardy the late Treasurer having settled his Accounts with the Company and executed a Power of Attorney authorising a Transfer of the Company's Old Account in the said Stock into the Names of William Chivers and Solomon Wadd together with Jonathan Key Esq<sup>r</sup> thereof became no Necessity for the new Account, It was Moved
