

there, walked in the same Form into the Court of Exchequer where the Cursitor Baron sat to receive them. The Lord Mayor making his Obeisance thereto, put on his Hat and presented the Sheriffs at the Bar of the Courts — The Deputy Recorder then in an handsome Speech, expressive of the Merits of each Sheriff, recommended them in the warmest Terms to the Cursitor Baron, who highly approved the Choice of the Citizens of London. The rest of the Ceremony over, they returned in the same Order to their Barge, and landed at Blackfriars Bridge, from whence they walked in the usual State thro' Ludgate Street, Saint Paul's Church Yard, into Cheapside, down Foster Lane to Haberdashers' Hall where an elegant Entertainment was provided as on the former day.
