Lord Mayor's

Procession

The clerk reported that by the instructions of the Master he had accepted the invitation of the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs' Committee to take part in the Lord Mayor's Procession on the 9th November next to do honour to Past Master M^r Alderman and Sheriff E. E. Cooper and his action was cordially approved.

Letters were read from Band Master Day of the 7th Battalion of the City of London Regiment and Colonel J. J. Hearn, commanding the Army Service Corps 1st London Division J. F. Sergeant at Arms of the City of London with regard to the supply of the necessary Band and on the proposition of Sir Homewood Crawford seconded by the Treasurer it was unanimously resolved to engage the Band of the Army Service Corps together with a mounted Escort consisting of one Officer, one Trumpeter and six Non-Commissioned Officers at an inclusive charge of £24.

The clerk was instructed to send out a circular letter to ascertain which Members of the Court proposed to take part in the Procession and it was decided that the Master and Wardens should wear low crowned velvet hats of the old shape but that the other Members of the Court (with the exception of those who had special hats with their degree gowns) and the clerk should wear silk hats. The clerk was also instructed to invite the Chaplain to accompany the Master in the Procession
