

made at the Herald's College Accordingly a letter was written by the Master to the Richmond Herald who after payment of a fee of a guinea replied in the course of his letter:-

"It would be quite correct for the Company to use helmet and mantling When the patent was issued to the Company in 1604 there is no reason for doubting that it contained helmet and mantling"

Mr. Atwell the Richmond Herald offers to supply a certificated painting of the Company's Coat of Arms with accessories. He adds that if Supporters are desired he would be pleased to take the necessary steps
